

2008 Summer Training: Crystallization Study of Luke:

Message Five: The Man-Savior and His Dynamic Salvation

The Man-Savior and His dynamic salvation is the person and work of Lord Jesus. He is God-man, so He is qualified to be our Savior; because He has this position, His human virtues are filled with the divine attributes. Such a Savior lives a kind of living that has the highest standard of morality. The highest standard of morality constitutes the qualification of the Man-Savior's dynamic salvation; It is also the basic factor of His dynamic salvation to completely save us. Therefore, He is not only the Savior of Jews; He is the Savior of the whole mankind. One just needs to believe Him to be saved.

As the Savior; Christ Himself is the salvation prepared by God for us and given to us. Zachariah's prophecy concerned God's redemptive move for His people unto their salvation, accomplished by the raising of Christ, in His humanity, as a horn of salvation in the house of David, and, in His divinity, as the rising sun from on high, through God's rich mercy according to His holy covenant. Jesus the Savior was the dawning sun to the dark age. His coming ended the night of the Old Testament and began the day of the New Testament. As the fruit in Elizabeth's blessing, He is life to us. As the sun in Zachariah's prophecy, He is light to us. As such a One, He is the Accomplisher and the center of God's redemption that His people may obtain salvation. The Savior is the salvation of God; when He comes, the salvation of God comes.

The Man-Savior was born of the human essence with the human virtues in order to rescue these virtues from man's fall and to restore and recover man's virtues from the damage of man's fall, it is also to uplift the human virtues to the highest standard – to the standard that matches the attributes of God for the expression of God. Therefore, the Man-Savior's incarnation produced the highest standard of morality, and this morality is for the saving power of His dynamic salvation. In order to save us, God came into man, bringing God's attributes into man's virtues; He lived the life of a God-man, with the divine attributes filling His human virtues; now as the Spirit He enters into us to bring God into our being and fill our virtues with the divine attributes. When He saves us, He comes into us as the One with the human virtues filled with the divine attributes; such a life saves us from within and uplifts our human virtues, restoring and transforming us.

The highest standard of morality constitutes the qualification for the Man-Savior's dynamic salvation; the best illustration is the parable of the good Samaritan. The highest standard of morality also constitutes the basic factor for the Man-Savior's dynamic salvation; we see this in the case of Zaccheus. The Man-Savior is like an immense magnet drawing people to Himself. The Man-Savior's dynamic saving power is constituted of His highest standard of morality in which His powerful Spirit and eternal life are; how we need this Man-Savior with His dynamic salvation!
