

2008 Summer Training: Crystallization Study of Luke:Message Eight: The Jubilee (2)

To be in the jubilee is to eat the Lord Jesus as the real produce of the good land, take Him as our dwelling place for our rest, and be freed from the slavery of sin and from the bondage of law and religion.

We need to realize, in Luke 4:18 – 19, announcing the gospel to the poor, proclaiming release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, and sending away in release those who are oppressed are the freedom and blessings of the jubilee. The word jubilee in Leviticus 25:10 means “a time of shouting,” or “a time of trumpeting of the ram’s horn”; the trumpeting of the ram’s horn signifies the preaching of the gospel as the proclaiming of liberty in the New Testament jubilee to all the sinners sold under sin that they may return to God and God’s family. Our preaching of the gospel is our blowing of the trumpet of redemption to proclaim to the world, “Behold, now is the well-acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation,” the year of jubilee.

God’s salvation causes us to have real freedom; our possession is God, and our freedom comes from the enjoyment of God. Freedom means release, to be freed from all bondage, all heavy burden, all oppression, and all enslavement. Everything in our life can be a bondage to us, and we can be slaves under any matter. First, Satan captured us; then he came to dwell in us as the inciter, the instigator, of our sins. Paul’s desperate cry in Romans 7:24 is answered in Romans 8:2, which says that the law of the Spirit of life frees us in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and of death. We can be released and have real freedom only by enjoying Christ as the life-giving Spirit; only those who enjoy God do not commit sin and are really free, living a life of liberty, release, and freedom from bondage.

The living of the jubilee is a living in the enjoyment of Christ, a living of enjoying God as our inheritance and real freedom. To be in the jubilee is to eat the Lord Jesus as the real produce of the good land, take Him as our dwelling place for our rest, and be freed from the slavery of sin and from the bondage of law and religion. To only way to be released from the three kinds of labor in human life – the labor to be a good person, the labor of anxiety, and the labor of suffering – is to take Christ as our enjoyment, satisfaction, and rest. The Christian life should be a life full of enjoying the Lord, a life full of joy and praise; when we enjoy the Lord fully, He becomes our jubilee.

The living of the jubilee is a life in which we take God Himself, Christ Himself, in every situation; then He becomes the primary factor and center in us to lead us and overrule all the troubles of human life. Paul learned the secret of living in the jubilee, the secret of gaining Christ in any kind of environment. We should learn of Paul’s pattern and enjoy Christ despite the circumstances. We need to be today’s ministers and witnesses by living and proclaiming the gospel – Christ as the jubilee of grace – for the accomplishing of God’s eternal economy.
